Every person is unique in their own way, just like every door is unique. Washington County Department of Human Services is having a coloring contest to show that there are many doors to connect with support, but if you are not sure how to get help, we can help you find the best door for you! With your creativity using paint, pens, crayons, markers, or anything else you have, we want to see you create YOUR best door design. It can be as simple or complex as you like, here is how it works.

Scan the QR code OR print out the coloring sheet.

Color your coloring sheet – Get Creative! Use pens, pencils, paint, markers, crayons, or whatever else you would like!
